URM forum Thursday, July 20

Information concerning problems faced by downtown property owners in meeting the state-mandated unreinforced masonry (URM) earthquake safety requirements will be addressed at a meeting at the Sierra Madre Senior Citizen Park House at 7 p.m., Thursday, July 20.

Both property owners and occupants of buildings which may be affected will have a chance to hear a panel of professional people in the field give advice on various aspects of compliance with the mandate to mitigate earthquake related hazards posed to public safety by URM structures.

Such questions as what is involved, access to testing labs, securing professional help, how to estimate costs, implications for occupants, public and private sources of financing, will be addressed and demonstrations of devices for testing will be given.

Ron Hutson, Main Street project manager, who is acting as liaison between the city and property owners, this week announced the names of the panel participants who will include Al Landsperger, Arcadia property owner and investor (also associated with McDowall, listed below); Donald Kay, Sierra Madre resident, former Sierra Madre Planning Commissioner and past president of the Structural Engineers Association of California; Dennis Wish, professional engineer specializing in structural design for commercial building earthquake rehabilitation; and James McDowall, licensed general contractor who has specialized in earthquake building reinforcement and is currently engaged in URM work in Sierra Madre and Arcadia.

In addition, City Council members, City Administrator Jim McRea and Building Inspector Steve Pock will be available to provide further input.

Don Murphy, licensed architect and Sierra Madre Main Street Board chairman, will also participate as program facilitator.

City Administrator McRea stated that 57 registered letters were sent to downtown property owners, churches and institutions May 4. Proof of receipt was received back from 56 of these. Seven additional buildings were placed on the original list and eight were subtracted, with some 50 remaining on the current list.

Only 22 have returned the surveys included in the letters, leaving approximately 55 percent who have not yet provided answers regarding date of construction (before or after 1933), documentation of work done or other information to substantiate that the property is not subject to the URM law.

A number of structural problems are posed by various buildings in Sierra Madre, as evidenced in the October, 1987, earthquake, where extensive damage was caused in some cases by lack of strength in exterior walls, while in others by unreinforced parapets.

The URM legislation mandates that all such hazards be mitigated except in the case of historically significant buildings which, in Sierra Madre, would include the Old City Hall, Sierra Madre Senior Citizen Park House and Old North Church, all of which have been placed on the Cultural Heritage Commission's Register.

These historical buildings are only required to be made "as safe as possible." Churches and other institutions in the community which also are in this category would be subject to the same minimal requirements.

The Sierra Madre School is exempt because it has already been required to comply with the school seismic safety Field Act.

Time is up for mailbox destroyers

Herb James IV

Herb James, IV, 14, believes that if there is a problem, you fix it. And that's exactly what he is trying to do this week.

He and a neighborhood friend, Mary Lou Back, have noticed an unreasonable number of mailboxes being smashed in their part of town — the southeast portion of Sierra Madre.

"One day, Mary Lou and I were talking about the problem and decided that we should do something about it. Soe we came up with 'Neighbors Against Mailbox Baseball' which we've called NAMB."

They were planning to prepare their flyer this week and distribute it to everyone on their street, hoping for support from others who have lost mailboxes.

Herb said, "We are thinking about possibly patroling the area or purchasing an infrared camera and film so we can get the perpetrators on film. It's a federal offense to mess with the U.S. mail."

Herb's parents, Herb III and Linda James, think it's a good idea and so do Herb's neighbors.

Herb IV will be a sophomore at St. Francis High School next year. He has a sister, Colleen, 24.

Anyone who would like more information concerning this nonprofit organization should send a letter in care of the Sierra Madre News, 9 Kersting Court, Sierra Madre, 91024.

City Council, MS, C of C meet tonight

The Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce and Main Street planned to meet at 6:30 p.m. in the council chambers Wednesday, July 12, following the regular Main Street board meeting at 3:30 that day.

Those two groups plus the City Council will meet this evening, Thursday, July 13, at 6:30 p.m. at the chambers for their quarterly meeting.

The chamber board met Tuesday morning this week, also. Christopher Valencia, chamber mixer chairman, reported at that meeting that there will be no mixer this month.

Comment

Kudos to C of C, MS

By the time this issue hits the streets, the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce and Main Street will have resolved most of their differences.

And they have accomplished this feat in a democratic, reasonable and responsible fashion. They are beginning to use the same manager for both organizations, two organizations with almost identical charters.

We applaud both organizations for their plans for Sierra Madre's revitalization and we tip our hat to Ron Hutson, the manager, who will undoubtedly lead us all toward analogous goals.

We are proud to be a part of both viable, healthy organizations.

Strip signs

We were heartened recently to see a young police officer stop his car and tear down a sign from a utility pole.

The signs are beginning to sprout up all over town and it's an unsightly problem, to say the least. Not only is the posting of signs unsightly, it is illegal to use utility poles in this manner.

Moving sales and yard sales and lost cats and dogs are of interest — but not to be posted on poles all over town.

We recently looked down the street and saw them flapping here and there on poles and trees.

Trees — now there's another problem. Every time we see a nail or thumb tack stuck into a tree, it's as if skin has been punctured. The skin of the tree HAS been punctured and it's unnecessary.

The police take an active role in removing the signs from poles and trees, but should they spend their time on that sort of duty? We are sure you will agree that there are more important tasks for them to do. But they, too, don't like to see our town turning into litter-lined streets.

Residents' cooperation would make life easier for the police and for citizens who find the litter distasteful.

Under the Pepper Tree

by Jan Reed

● Ruth Harmon, the Chamber of Commerce film coordinator, is recovering from a debilitating stroke of three weeks ago. According to her son, Jim, she is making a "remarkable recovery."

Ruth is affected on her right side.

She is at Norris Institute and in another week will be transferred to Huntington Hospital.

● Little did I know that this week I would be reporting my husband's hospital stay; however, Don went into Methodist Hospital last Thursday with a bad burn on his right foot. By the time you read this, he should be back home once more.

It seems that the heat of the brake pedal in Henrietta, his 1920 Ford, became so extreme during the Fourth of July parade that the heat went through a stocking and shoe and gave Don a second degree burn on the bottom of his right foot. In fact, the blister was about the size of the brake peddle. Unfortunately, Don has little feeling in his feet so he was unaware of the problem until the night of the Fourth of July.

Infection set in and we called him "Bigfoot" for a few days.

When this was written, he was progressing nicely and was promised to be home for the weekend.

● Ann Boone wrote us recently from her new home down south. She is ordering a birthday gift subscription to The News for a Sierra Madre friend. She says, "Just had a friend visit me from Sierra Madre. Since I knew more about the town than he did, I felt he should have a subscription to The News."

She misses her dear friends in Sierra Madre but is having a great time where she is.

● You'll notice an ad from Eagle Shield in this week's edition of The News. Look for a feature story next week from Matt Clark concerning this exciting new product.

● Bobby and Elissa Clark are moving from Sierra Madre after having lived here for many years. Actually, they moved this week to Perris to live in their fancy mobile home that is stationed on a lot which they have purchased.

Bobby was born here and Elissa came at the time of their marriage 35 years ago. They just celebrated their anniversary on an exciting cruise.

Elissa was involved over the years in St. Rita's Guild, Girl Scouts, Alverno Guild, Civic Club, and Historical Society. Bobby was a volunteer fireman for 27 years, belonged to the Holy Name Society and Knights of Columbus. He retired in 1981 from 40 years in the paint and body shop. Right after WWII, he came home and opened the shop.

They are going to have a great time in Perris but, Elissa says, "I will miss this very unique town. There is a familiarity here that is so wonderful."

Their children are Marianne McCarthy and Peggy Dellenbach. Marianne and her husband in Monrovia have three children, and Peggy and her husband, Daniel, of the Bay area are expecting their first child in August.

We hate to see them go . . .

● It was pretty wild at The News office last week when the baby came to visit without his mother. Camee was having her nails polished and dropped off Wesley with us.

The first thing he needed was a change. Good heavens, it has been 29 years since I had to do that sort of thing. Susannah Macy (who has a 3-year-old) came to the rescue, transformed the legal desk into a changing table and quickly had the job done. Whew. By then we were all perspiring.

Those of you who weren't in your offices/businesses didn't get a peek; however, I managed to walk the street with the World's Greatest Grandchild, being positively shameless. Thanks to you all for agreeing with us that he is really gorgeous.

● We had some disquieting news from the L.A. County Dept. of Health Services — a ground squirrel has tested positive for sylvatic plaque. Symptoms in humans include enlargement of lymph glands near the flea bite area followed by rapid onset of fever with chills. If untreated, bubonic plague may progress to septicemia and plague pneumonia which can be fatal. If diagnosed in time, it can be treated with anitbiotics.

Be careful when you're in those hills . . .

What's done for youth?

This letter was also sent to the Star-News, Arcadia Tribune, Highlander, Los Angeles Times and San Gabriel Valley Daily Tribune. Ed.

"Where have all the roses gone?" That question was asked by a young woman parishoner from Holy Angels Church who had fond memories of Father O'Keefe. She was planning her wedding photographs and she wanted to have one taken in the rose garden which was planted in his memory. Joggers also ask the same question. Motorists have a different perspective as they view the site as part of an open park which starts at the city line at the west and continues all the way to the County Park and Santa Anita Avenue on the east. With the increasing density of building, urban park space is valuable and should be conserved.

The Senior Center proposed for the site opposite the entrance to the race track at the intersection of Campus, Holly and Huntington is strictly for seniors. It is quite handsome, in fact, it looks like a resort with its porte-cochere and over 200 parking spaces. Recreation department offices are there also making it City Hall West.

Seniors at present have facilities provied for them by the Assistance League for 5 days a week. Space is also provided at County Park and last October new dining facilities were added. If we truly believe that our future lies in our youth, is it a wise use of public funds to spend $4 million more on seniors when we provide nothing for our youth?

When Simon Eisner Associates presented their General Plan for the city in 1972, they said it "should include a Community Recreation Center Building to serve the needs of all age groups within the city. The city property north of City Hall should be used for the site of the facility." We now own the adjoining armory property which will be the site of for the proposed new police building. In another section the following comment is made, "According to the Pasadena Foothill Area Study, public recreation programs through the Foothill area are singularly lacking in activities that appeal to older teenage youth, especially those from 15 to 19 years of age. Therefore, opportunities for varied recreation must be present. Provision of meeting places for organized youth groups as well as unorganized and incidental groups of young people socializing should be provided."

In our music program we have many gifted students whose parents can afford private lessons and who perform very well. However, we have no auditorium, therefore they are forced to go outside of Arcadia for performance space. The same is true of the drama department at Arcadia High. We are supposedly an affluent, well-educated, cultured community, yet we totally ignore one segment, the youth, while planning to duplicate facilities for another segment, the elderly.

No environmental impact or traffic studies have been made in spite of the fact that the race track operates 7 months of the year now that they have added off-track betting. We lose scarce urban park space. Council dismisses the whole matter by saying that there won't be that much difference. However, thoughtful people respond with irate concern.

Plans were scheduled to go out for bid on July 5. Most citizens not informed about this whole project. If you do care and believe that there should be more citizen input, please notify the Council.

Against S.M. secession movement

We are writing in response to the secession movement initiated by a group of Sierra Madre parents calling themselves Sierra Madre Parents For a Better Education. As Northwest Pasadena Parents whose children have been and are currently enrolled in Sierra Madre, this secession movement has not only angered us but has concerned us about its negative effect on the entire school community. We believe the petition by SMPBE, in its entirety and including its name, is nothing but a semantic smokescreen for blatant segregation of the Pasadena public school system.

The implications and allegations that Sierra Madre has not had a quality education could not be further from the truth. We are part of a large group of parents whose support for Sierra Madre, with its excellent teachers and staff, should not be discounted. We wish that our children continue to be included in this quality learning environment and are rightfully concerned about the petition's exclusionary features.

All children, regardless of socio-economic background or ethnicity, have a right to "better" public education. Further-more, no child should be discriminated against because of where they reside.

There are many allegations listed in the SMPBE petition which could be refuted, but one should ask what are the ulterior motives behind these petitioners who support secession.

Steve and Noreen Diaz, Northwest Pasadena Parents, Sierra Madre Elementary School

Regarding those rezoning problems

The proposed zoning changes for the city of Sierra Madre have been covered in two recent articles in the News. Some background on this process may be of additional interest to your readers.

A twelve-member Ad Hoc Citizens Committee was appointed by the City Council last October to "review and recommend objectives and goals of the Land Use and Housing Element of the Sierra Madre General Plan." Recent legislation has required that every city in California review these two elements of their general plans every five years and to subsequently make any zoning changes needed to insure consistency between the General Plan and corresponding Zoning Maps. The committee met every other week until they concluded their study, and then presented their findings at a joint study session with the City Planning Commission in June.

During this nine month study period the committee visited every single property in the city and walked every street in addition to their monthly study sessions. Chief among their concerns was how the General Plan, the Zoning Map and actual current usage of the residential, professional and commercial zones concluded.

This effort was necessary on two counts: first, to meet state requirements by July 1, 1989 with respect to General Plan regulations and secondly as a needed re-examination of how residential areas were being used. This research gave the city needed information regarding present and future residential use.

The recommendations for zoning changes reflect the complete consensus of the committee and express input of many residents encountered during the period of research. The overall purpose of the recommendations is to:

1. Reduce density of building in those large properties which are currently zoned for single family residents yet have the potential of being subdivided into very small single family lots (this includes the two school sites, British Home and several estates),
2. Adjust the zoning of high-density multi-resident areas to corresponding with their current lower-density usage;
3. Address the safety issue of mulit-resident usage on some streets where the access is inappropriate for large volumes of traffic;
4. Allow for historical overlay zones on some of Sierra Madre's truly unique homes, properties and entrance corridors to protect them from future subdivision and destruction (South Baldwin Avenue, Ward Ranch, Alverno High School, Krafft and Jameson Estates).

Now that the initial work of the Ad Hoc Committee is finished, the Planning Commission will make final recommendations available to the City Council regarding the present and future zoning needs of the city.

It is interesting to note that Sierra Madre is one of many cities currently making necessary zoning changes. Arcadia recently changed a single-family residential zone from 15,000 to 22,000 and the Inyo County Supervisors recently changed zoning to reflect current ranchland usage to keep rural properties from being densely subdivided.

Bill Chilton, Ad Hoc Committee Chairman

No info about L.L. fracus

I am shocked that not one article has appeared in your newspaper about the sham that occurred to our Little League team, White Sox, that wasn't allowed to play Arcadia in the Little League playoffs. This is our city representative! This team of young men played all season and had a 17-1 record. They would have certainly gone to be a contender and might have made it to the Little League World Series . . . Yes, Sierra Madre could have been on national T.V.! Don't laugh, the team was that good. And even if it wasn't, these kids were not given a chance because the administrator said that our team did not have an approved charter. Mr. George Throop, coach, had the papers but not with him and the administrator said no good since he didn't see them. These documents were later produced but it was too late for the kids to play. Now this is the greatest crime of all. Why haven't you carried the story, or at least had some recognition for the young players? Our local newspaper is supposed to represent our community interests . . . help!

The Sierra Madre News was not aware of this problem until the above letter arrived. Neither Gayle Licher nor George Throop III were available for comment. When The News is able to get a story, it will appear immediately. Ed.

"OUR FLAG . . .
LOVE IT . . .
HONOR IT . . .
PROTECT IT . . ."

— ASSEMBLYMAN DICK MOUNTJOY

Like many Americans, I was shocked and angered by the Supreme Court's decision to allow the burning of the American Flag.

Our flag stands in an honored place in our houses of worship because it is a symbol of our religious freedoms. It waves over our schools as a testament to our heritage and to our freedom of opportunity. It flies over our state houses and federal buildings as testimony to our representative form of government. And it flies in our yards and from our homes as a reminder that we are a free people today because of those who paid a dear price throughout all of our yesterdays.

Efforts are underway in Congress to amend the U.S. Constitution to protect our flag.

If you are as outraged as I am, please complete the form below and send it to me. I will forward it, and hopefully thousands more, to your Congressional representative as well as Senators Wilson and Cranston and President Bush. We, the people, must be heard on this issue!

Dear Congressman,

I support Assemblyman Dick Mountjoy's effort to save our Flag! I urge you to support a Constitutional Amendment that will protect our Flag.

SIERRA MADRE CITY COLLEGE AND THE FLAILING YAK BAND — They were all there, the Sierra Madre City College Band with doubles of the Flailing Yak Band. Here are the cheerleaders who lead the college group.

Games after the parade brought much fun to participants. The water balloon game was fun because the burst balloons afforded a cooling atmosphere on the 100-degree Fourth of July.

"NOW I HAVE MY FAMILY BACK"

"For years my family lived with pain and frustration. My husband, Jim, is an alcoholic.

At first none of us could face it. I didn't know what to do. He had no control. I had no control. The whole family was losing hope. Then I called the SHARE UNIT.

They showed us how family intervention works. Now, with treatment, I have the man I love back in my life. I have my family."

MAIN STREET
By Ron Hutson

First prize of $200 in the recently completed Main Street Dash for Cash promotion is going to Angel Tyler of Sierra Madre. Second prize of $100 is being awarded to Margaret Azpeitia, also of Sierra Madre. The third prize of $50 will be received by Patricia Conklin of Temple City. Congratulations to our winners. Twenty-five shoppers visited at least 10 of the 15 sponsors to qualify for the Grand Prize Drawing. Conditions beyond the promotion committee control prevented the drawing from taking place during the 4th of July celebration as had been announced. The drawing was conducted during the Promotion Committee meeting on Thursday morning, July 6.

A big Main Street "Thank You" to our Dash For Cash sponsors: At the Beach, The Spinning Wheel, Diet Center, Foothill Creative Arts Group, Little Stuga, Christopher's Custom Jewelry & Antiques, Delabooke & Associates, Restaurant Lozano, Sierra Madre News, Happy's Wines and Spirits, Crystal Cleaners, Climb Creations, Webb & Gordon, Best Buy Drugs and Century 21 Village Realty.

Main Street's first annual (we hope) 4th of July float drew cheers and applause. The float building committee was headed up by Judy Webb-Martin (Webb & Gordon Real Estate) and Joan Sheets (Little Stuga). Joan loaned us her driveway as the construction site and Judy enlisted the engineering skills of her husband to design the necessary framework. Designers, painters and artistic consultants helping bring the float in on time, in addition to our co-chairs, were: Heather Sheets, Susan Colby, Tracy Miller, Jacki Raymond, Susannah and Jim Macy and Benn Martin. Yours truly had the privilege of piloting our entry down Sierra Madre Blvd.

Our theme, in case you missed it, was Downtown . . . what else? Three hand sketched and hand painted panels portrayed Sierra Madre's central business district. Spectators with sharp eyes may have caught some of the artist's unique and special features that had been added to the existing downtown landscape. It was definitely a fun project. Volunteers for the 1990 Main Street float building extravaganza are already being signed up. Interested?

Lots going on this week. The Main Street and Chamber boards are meeting to discuss how they can most effectively cooperate to move the downtown revitalization program ahead. A second working paper report from our marketing consultants will be reviewed and discussed with the City Council and Chamber board during our quarterly meeting. A second meeting notice goes out to owners of URM (unreinforced masonry) buildings and their business tenants inviting them to attend the July 20 URM Information meeting.

The Promotion committee skips meeting this week but committee members continue to work on planning events for the 1989 Christmas season . . . it will be here before you know it. And the Design Review task force completes their design guidelines working paper draft to forward to City Council.

Bethany

By Al Elby

Clyde was speaking from the 12th chapter of Mark, where Jesus tells the Parable of the Tenants. The story is familiar; where the landowner plants a vineyard, leases out the land and then leaves the country for an extended stay. At harvest time he repeatedly sends his servants to collect the rent. All are beaten and sent away until finally the landowner sends his son whom he feels they will respect. Unfortunately, they kill him because they thought they would then own the land.

Clyde pointed out that our lives are very similar to the parable in the God holds the title deed on our vineyard of life and He has chosen to lease us some space. We have a lease agreement with God and it must be honored or, as in the parable, He'll sign over our lease to other tenants.

If we recognize that God holds title, then we're only one step away from being everything He wants us to be. The natural extension of this is that we pay our rent and that comprises of giving God a percentage of what we have, namely our time, talents and treasure. When you stop and think about it, God has given us quite a break. Whereas He has the right to "demand" it all, fortunately, He only asks for a small perentage. Isn't that always the case, He is forever meeting us more than half way? But the flip side of the coin is that if we refuse to give a percentage, we may well forfeit the space we occupy.

We at Bethany are fully aware of this economical truth and giving to God His just desserts is taught and preached. It's not always convenient or comfortable, but it sure as heck is spiritual.

Congregational

At the 8:15, 9:45 and 11:15 a.m. services on Sunday morning, July 16, Pastor Dick Anderson will be preaching on the topic, "Signs, Wonders and Miracles," using II Corinthians 12:11-19 as his scriptural reference.

Are signs, wonders and miracles sure indications that God is at work? Do amazing events confirm conclusively that the hand of God is at work? How can we know for sure that a spiritual movement is operating under the authority and power of God? Christians should know the answers to these questions because God deals with such concerns in His word.

These are very good questions to ask. There are Christian leaders today who feel that amazing happenings, even miracles, are proof positive that God is at work. But when we search the scriptures what do we find? We find that God did confirm His word with signs, wonders, and miracles. Then, you say, what is the problem? The problem is simply this: the word of God also teaches us that in the last days seducing spirits will arise which will deceive many, yes, even the elect of God, if that were possible.

Sunday evening service, 6 p.m. will be part two of the film series "Out of the Salt Shaker," another look at sharing our faith. Just when you thought it was safe to keep the Good News to yourself, Jesus said, "Follow Men and I will make you Fishers of Men."

Gloria Dei

The sermon theme for next Sunday at Gloria Dei Ev. Lutheran Church on 186 W. Highland Ave. in Sierra Madre is: "Religious Fanatics." It is based on Mark 3:1-6. Sunday School and adult Bible Class follow. We invite you to be our guests!

Thoughts on Prayer

To pray means to talk with God. This may be done by speaking words, (Isiah 65:24) or by singing hymns (Psalm 95) or by our thoughts (Psalm 19:14) or with the desires and longings of the heart (Psalm 10:17). In prayer we express our wants and needs, our griefs and sorrows and ask for a reassurance of God's grace and mercy. We also thank and praise Him for what He has done for us. Prayer is an act of worship because thereby we recognize and honor God as our Helper in every need.

United Methodist

"The Good Palestinian" will be the sermon by Rev. Rich LaShure in the worship service at Sierra Madre United Methodist Church this Sunday at 9:30 a.m. The scripture will be Luke 10:25 - 37, the Parable of the Samaritan.

In the parable only the Samaritan stops to help the Hebrew man who was robbed and left beside the road. Then and now, the Samaritans or Palestinians and the Israelites are bitter enemies.

Rev. Sylvia Hines will deliver the Children's Sermon in the morning service. This is offered each month on the third Sunday. Rev. LaShure's pastor's class meets every Wednesday in the lounge at 7:30 p.m., and is open to anyone who wishes to attend.

St. Rita's

A bouquet of retreats is being offered in the area that will fit a number of different needs. The first is a weekend retreat at the De Paul Center, 1105 Bluff Rd., Montebello, from Friday, July 21 at 7 p.m. through Sunday, July 23, at 4 p.m. The focus of the retreat will be to review two of the basic realities in lay spiritullity — Prayer and Conversion of Life. For further information, contact the DePaul Center at (213) 723-7343.

Mission San Luis Rey, near Oceanside, is offering a retreat for married couples the weekend of July 28-30. Details can be obtained by calling the Mission at (619) 757-3659.

Grandson of Sherks dies in auto accident

Matthew Brian Quarton, grandson of Howard and Maxine Sherk of Sierra Madre, died June 19 as the result of a freak accident near Wrightwood June 17.

Matthew was riding in the back of a pickup truck when it went out of control and overturned on Big Rock Creek Road at 1:05 p.m. Saturday, June 17. He was pronounced dead Monday, never gaining consciousness at Antelope Valley Hospital Medical Center where he was airlifted after the accident.

Matthew, 18, was riding in the back of the pcikup with three other youth. Inside the cab of the 1980 Toyota were the driver, Matt Carson, 18, and another youth, 21.

Carson was northbound and negotiated a right hand curve, going 40 miles an hour in a 55-mile-an-hour zone. The truck veered sideways, hitting the shoulder of the roadway, overturning and ejecting the four in the back of the truck. The investigating officer indicated that a partially underinflated left rear tire could possibly have contributed to the accident. The report showed no alcohol or drugs involved in the accident.

All the others in the accident were treated and released from the hospital the same day.

Matthew Brian Quarton moved to Wrightwood with his family when he was 9 years old. He was born Sept. 18, 1970 in Pasadena and moved to the Wrightwood community in 1979, having attended Wrightwood School and graduating from Serrano High School.

Since graduation he had been living in San Diego, planning to work and attend college there.

He is survived by his parents, Sue and Gary Quarton, a sister Kate and brother Scott, the maternal grandparents, the Sherks who live in Sierra Madre, and paternal grandparents, Marty and Mary Brower of Altadena.

WHAT WE TEACH
WHAT WE BELIEVE:
In our classes and course work, we teach how to move from sense living, that of living on a purely material level, to living from the center. We learn to live by spiritual principles. We know that the mind is not constructed to take two opposing ideas at the same time, and therefore, as we learn to develop the single eye, keeping our mind and attention on God, there is no room for depressing negative concepts and ideas. Since all life is an out-picturing of consciousness that which we seek, that which we think about all day long, is our experience. As we fill our minds with Truth, God ideas, God Principles, God activity, out lives out-picture this. Our basic idea is that there is one Presence and One Power. It is operative in our lives as we let it be.

On Stage

By Mary Cogswell Baum

"Chorus Line" is opening in San Gabriel July 14, and should be highly satisfactory, since Rikki Lugo, the choreographer, is one of the treasures of the San Gabriel Civic Light Opera.

"Chorus Line" has been running for 15 years on Broadway and remains as true to life as the theatrical dancer as ever. Dancers are among the most disciplined and dedicated performers on the stage. Rarely do any of the multitudes achieve stardom, and one of the points of the script is that to become one of the chorus, individuality must be stifled. They have to love what they do in order to put so much time and effort into achieving the insecure and underrated status of "gypsy." Like other athletes, their skills are largely objective, and if the body is not the right shape and the muscles strenuously trained, they are not acceptable. Injuries are common, and age inevitably brings their careers to an early end. "Chorus Line" tries to explain them in a series of near monologues that turn the automatic smiles into individuals.

The language of the theater is not always subtle or polite; several life styles are represented, and if you prefer to live under a glass ball, you might consider skipping this one. But you will miss a lot of dancing, a lot of good music and a lot of truth.

"Ruddigore" also opens tomorrow at Occidental College's Hillside Theater and Gilbert and Sullivan is always fun.

Theater Americana has a summer project. "Godspell" is going to be performed in the outdoor amphitheater in Farnsworth Park, just south of the park building, on Aug. 18, 19, 25, 26 and Sept. 1 and 2. "Godspell" has been around since the '60s with its full-rock version of the New Testament and it is sure fire. Richard Doherty, the director who gave their "Phantom of the Opery" so much pizazz, will direct this too and seems able to attract a crowd of lively young people.

The Pasadena Playhouse has announced that "Stepping Out" will have its run extended, a sure sign of a show that makes its audiences happy.

The Playhouse Balcony Theater is kept busy with two one-person shows. Betty Garrett (remember her in "On the Town," "Take Me Out to the Ballgame" and other golden-age movie musicals?) reflects on her career and show business generally in "No Dogs or Actors Allowed," July 13 through 23, and comedian Dale Gonyea turns himself loose on local life in "An American in Pasadena," July 28 through Aug. 6.

Tonight, the Mark Taper Forum opens "Temptation," a Czechoslovakian version of Faust, laid in "a scientific institute rampant with bureaucracy and politics," and you can see that for whatever you wish to pay this next Sunday, July 16, at 7:30 p.m.

Ballance to lecture July 17

Emily Ballance, M.Ed., will be giving a free presentation entitled, "Successful Weight Control," Monday, July 17, from 8 - 9 p.m. at the Pasadena Hastings Library, 3325 E. Orange Grove Blvd. It is free and open to the public. For more information or for directions, call 792-5600.

Ballance, who has had a private practice in Pasadena for the past nine years, works with private clients as well as seven weight control support groups. She sees people who have been on various diets before, but who want to understand and change their eating habits.

Her past experience includes lecturing and counseling at the Duke University Dietary Clinic, one of the most successful weight control programs in the country. She has also been a guest speaker of such local groups as Pasadena and Altadena Soroptimist International, Arcadia Methodist Hospital's Arthritis Support Group, American Association of University Women, Magna Carta Business and Professional Women's Organization, San Marino Newcomer's Club and Pasadena Commission on the Status of Women.

WOMAN'S CLUB ENTERTAIN THE MORNING OF JULY 4 — Gertrude Daniels poured tea and coffee while other Woman's Club representatives assist. At the right is Martha Van De Verg.

Baby Basics class offered July 15

The Baby Basic Class offered at Methodist Hospital from 9 until 10:30 a.m. on Saturday, July 15 will address the essentials of bathing, feeding, diapering and even laundry.

This class is offered free of charge to Methodist Hospital patients and at a $15 fee for others. For registration contact the Methodist Hospital Education Department, (818) 574-3475.

It was a great parade . . .

BANG, BOOM — Sierra Madre Yacht Club appear as a pirate ship and for awhile we thought we were going to be swept away by the waves.

Yes, James was there with Mrs. French. However, this year his shorts were flowered instead of solid red.

ACURA OF PASADENA

THE 1990 INTEGRA. INSPIRATION FOR TAKING THE LONG WAY TO WORK.

It's 11:30 p.m. and you're setting your alarm clock to wake you up thirty minutes earlier than usual. Not because you have a busy day at the office, but because you want to spend a little more time getting there.
When was the last time you were this excited about driving a car? Back in college? Or maybe high school?
Maybe it's time you gave some serious thought to the Acura Integra. An automobile whose judicious blend of comfort and performance provides you with an excuse for getting to the office by way of a mountain road, a coast highway or perhaps a few extra side streets.
Spend a few minutes inside the Integra and you'll see exactly what we mean. An ergonomic interior places every button, switch and control right at your fingertips. Bolstered front bucket seats offer comfort and support. And a slim roof pillar design makes for extraordinary visibility.
Features you'll appreciate even more while you're making the most of its Formula One-inspired, 1.8-liter, 16-valve DOHC engine. A design that makes city driving as enjoyable as the open highway.
What's more, the Integra has a responsive four-wheel fully independent double wishbone suspension for superb road control. And available Anti-Lock Brakes* for steering control under severe braking conditions.
Come in for a test drive soon. After all, with an automobile as enjoyable to drive as the Acura Integra, you may find yourself adding a few more miles to all your drives.
ACURA
Precision crafted performance.

Mary Dougherty

Dougherty becomes school board prexy

At the same meeting in which she was sworn in for her second term on Arcadia's Board of Education, Mary Dougherty was elected to serve as board president.

Dougherty and Joann Steinmeier took the oath of office from Jack Saunders, former judge of the Santa Anita Municipal Court, at last Wednesday's school board meeting.

Mike Allison will serve as vice president and Bob Kladifko as secretary-clerk.

As she assumes her new role, Dougherty expresses concern over the school district's facilities and the need to "do so much."

"When people work in pleasant surroundings, it has a tremendous impact on what they do and how they feel about what they do," the new president said.

She looks forward to the district receiving funds from the Leroy Greene State School Building Lease Purchase Program, which helps with reconstruction of schools over 30 years old.

Another concern expressed by Dougherty is the need to find a more positive, less adversarial process for negotiating teacher contracts so that negotiations can be viewed "as mutual problem solving."

During the last four years on the board of education, Dougherty has been a delegate to the California School Board Association and is a member of the state nominating commitee.

She currently is a member of the board of directors of the Arcadia Tournament of Roses Association and the Arcadia Chapter of the American Red Cross. She also is a member of Assistance League of Arcadia.

Dougherty began her involvement in Arcadia schools through PTAs at Highland Oaks, Foothill Junior High and Arcadia High. She served the elementary school as president and was honored by that PTA with the Honorary Service Award. She has received Continuing Service Awards from Arcadia High and Arcadia Council PTA.

Dougherty and her husband, Richard, have two sons: Mike, who graduated from the University of the Pacific, is selling annuities in the San Diego area; and Bill just completed his freshman year at Pepperdine Univeristy.

HELP! SUMMER WARDROBE

And have we been enjoying the good ole summer time these past few days! For those of us on vacation, clothes haven't been too much a problem, but not everybody can take his vacation at the same time. So for those of us still on the job, there's the problem of clothes.

Dresses, slacks and suits wrinkle easier during hot weather, and there are those cooling drinks to be spilled, those fruit and melon stains. And if you think you're hot and uncomfortable, think about your clothes! The heat tends to set those stains, making them harder to remove from fabrics. The harder the stain is to remove, the more wear and tear on your clothing. Moisture makes the wrinkles more permanent.

MOst of us usually have a larger summer wardrobe, allowing for more changes. Naturally, we feel better and cooler when clothes are fresh. So didn't hang them back in the closet after wearing — thinking to yourself — "I'll just wait until they all need to be cleaned — and take 'em all at once." Bring them in now. Do yourself and your clothes a favor. You'll benefit by looking better and feeling fresher in your clean, clean clothes. Your clothes will wear longer and look better with more frequent cleaning — the sooner after staining, the better.

Arcadia drop-outs at 1.13 percent

Recent published reports which showed Arcadia Unified School District's drop-out rate at between 7.05 and 15 percent caused local school administrators to investigate the situation further. The inquiry revealed that in filling out a California Basic Educational Data System report, Huntington High School and Rancho High School had erroneously reported all students who left school, including those that transferred to other schools.

Upon checking the destinations of these students, as evidenced by transcript requests from receiving schools, it was determined that the current drop-out figure for 1987-88 was two for Huntington and six for Rancho.

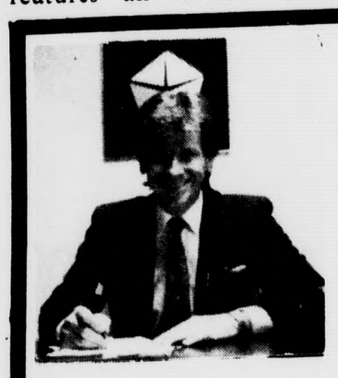

The working definition for a drop-out is a student who has been out of school for over 45 days and for whom no request for school record or transcript has been received, reports Mary Dougherty, school board president.

Based on this definition, Arcadia High School, with an enrollment of 2124 for the year is question, had 17 drop-outs, leaving the district and its 2212 students with a total of 25 drop-outs. These figures represent a 1.13 percent rather than the previously reported numbers.

Area golfers to vie for chance to play in SCGA Amateur

Local golfers will be seeking to qualify in the Southern California Golf Association Amateur Championship which will be held July 21 - 23 at Glendora Country Club in Glendora.

Hopefuls will play qualifying rounds at courses around Southern California on Friday or Monday.

Vying for one of the 84 spots in the championship flight to play on Friday, July 21 at Glendora are Pasadena residents James Bishop, Jeff Crosier, Kevin Fortin, James House, George Matakovich, Kevin McCloskey and Rex Murphy.

Those Pasadena golfers seeking to be among the 32 competing in the finals of the president's flight, with handicaps from 5-8, are Robert Alley, Don Ferrari, Robert Gordon, E. R. Jensen, Ron Jones, Bill McCallum, Chip Perry and William Shelton.

Entrants in the vice-president's flight, handicaps 9 - 12, include Mark Hoherd, Arcadia; Rick Lejune, Pasadena; Tucker Muhrer, Pasadena; and Larry Nelson, Monrovia.

A total of 370 golfers will attempt to qualify for the championship flight while 913 will tee off in the qualifying round for three other flights, with 32 players making it to the finals in each flight. There also is a secretary's flight, however, no local golfers are competing in that division.

Young drivers win in Safety Run

All four Arcadia Police Department entries in the 36th Annual Youth Safety Run received trophies at an awards banquet held recently at the Pomona Valley Mining Co.

Eric Huber and Ryan Winter, driver and co-driver, respectively, were first place winners as they got 35.520 miles per gallon driving a Buick Century from Becherer Buick in Monrovia. The boys belong to Arcadia Police Explorer Post No. 101 and were sponsored by the Arcadia Lions Club.

Driving a Pontiac Firebird at 31.870 miles per gallon, Peter Kelly and John Sutton, members of the Chariots Car Club, won first place in their class. The car was provided by Sierra Pontiac in Monrovia, and the entry was sponsored by the West Arcadia Business and Professional Association.

A second place trophy was won by Matt Morse, driver, and Daniel Owens, co-driver. These members of the Chariots Car Club, sponsored by the Arcadia Civitan Club, drove an Oldsmobile Delta 88 Custom Royale from Jim Butler Oldsmobile in Ontario.

Another second place winner was the team of Will Hooker and Rodney Valdez, members of the Arcadia Explorer Post. They drove a Chrysler LeBaron from Pasadena Chrysler Plymouth in an entry sponsored by the Arcadia Kiwanis Club.

The Youth Safety Run, sponsored by the Police Advisory Council for Car Clubs, is a fuel economy, safe driving event for youths between the ages of 16-20, who are members of police sponsored car clubs or Explorer posts. The youths drive new American made automobiles along a specified route from a host city (Pomona, this year) in Southern California to Yosemite National Park.

AHS, AMH to offer physicals for athletes

A physical examination is required of athletes who participate in school sports in grades 9-12, and to help area youths meet this requirement, the Arcadia Unified School District, in cooperation with Methodist Hospital, will provide physical exams for a minimal expense on Friday, July 21.

For a fee of $5 any boy or girl who is thinking of participating in a sport during the 1989-90 school year, may go to Arcadia High School from 7-9 a.m. for high school students and from 8 - 10 a.m. for junior high.

The coaching staff reminds Arcadia students that this physical exam applies to athletes who intend to participate in winter or spring sports as well as the fall program. The coaches add that the $5 spent may save $50-$100 later.

Doctors from Arcadia Methodist Hospital donate their time so that these examinations, which meet the California Interscholastic Federation requirements, can be offered for a nominal fee.

Transportation fees for athletes may be paid at the time of the physicals. A fee of $70 is required for the first sport and $45 for any additional.

Maranatha to sponsor golf tourney for football funds, July 14

Maranatha High School's First Annual Minutemen Golf Tournament will be held on Friday, July 14 at Santa Anita Golf Course. The fund-raising event for the Minutemen football program will begin at 10 a.m. when golfers tee off, competing in a scramble format for team as well as individual prizes.

Dave Hogan, football coach and tournament coordinator, has arranged for prizes to be awarded for team low score, team high score, individual long drive and individual closest to the hole.

Following the tournament, a New York steak dinner will be served at the west end of the Arcadia County Park.

Funds raised from the tournament will be used to update equipment for the football program, according to Hogan, who reports that new shoulder pads and helmets are needed for football while a weight lifting machine would be beneficial to all athletes.

Current sponsors for the tournament are Aid Driving School, J and J Sports and Trophies, Ronald Hudson, O.D., Tom Martinez and Paul's Automatic Transmission Shop.

Shoemaker retires

Bill Shoemaker, who has won more races than any jockey in history, has selected Santa Anita as the site of his final professional ride, which will take place on Feb. 4, 1990.

By continuing his remarkable career into 1990, he will have competed during six decades, a professional sports feat of astounding proportions. Shoemaker's first ride was on March, 19, 1949.

"Santa Anita is both honored and thrilled to be able to present this milestone sports event," said track president Robert P. Strub on Friday.
